Committee Reports:

--Daryl Mundil reported on Gun Show. Lost some vendors with about 2-14 tables. Beemer ALR will be here. VetSet will have a table. The Chicken Show flyers have our gun show on it. Daryl will be gone during the Gun Show. Daryl will keep the vendors checks until after the show. We are at 49 tables now and setting good with table supply.

--Raffle tickets. Turn into the person you got them from or Daryl or Sandra Hansen at the Tom Hansen CPA in Wayne. Tickets are out and flyers are at several banks in the county.

Sick Call:

- Beverly Neel, Rt. Arm pain, C7 may need surgery
- Dave Bloomfield, MRI on 7-2

Old business:

- Jeep repair in the works. Seals are installed, clutch repairs done, need more gear oil and may need new clutch & pressure plate. Need to replace the battery and maybe a cut-off switch.
- Trailer license, Bud gave papers to Daryl.
- 4-H Sharpshooters Triathlon was a good day.
- Question about costs for James Simpson attending the National American Legion shoot. Darin moved to donate $300.00 to Simpson's for expenses, Devin second, motion passed.
- Bud talked about the NSP K-9 program. Department passed the resolution; Detachment has not voted on it yet.
- Bud reported National organization has voted to increase our membership dues, beginning in 2020.

New business:

- Hal Daub won another rifle during our raffle and donated it back for a fundraiser. Mr. Daub is impressed with our program and what we do. He may be our guest speaker for Memorial Day. Dave Bloomfield sent a letter to Hal Daub about the prize being donated back for Mr. Daub to sign.
- Dave Bloomfield passed along the Phil O'Donnell remarks. He felt we had the cleanest Legion Hall he has been in.
- Daryl Mundil talked about the Miracle League in Sioux City.
- Dave Bloomfield advised he and Mark will have a booth at the Gun Show and the Wayne Co. Fair and sell tickets at both.
- Darin Greunke would like to have the Jeep at his 4-H Sharpshooters booth during the day and move it around at night to sell tickets.
- Bud advised the Detachment is looking to fill the Historian position.
- Parade entry for Hoskins 4th of July parade and the Chicken Days parades. Kevin has the entry form for Chicken Days and Hoskins is already approved with the information typed out for announcer.
